Matthew 22:34-46

When the Pharisees heard that he had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a lawyer, asked him a question to test him. "Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?"

He said to him, "'You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.' This is the greatest and first commandment.

And a second is like it: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets."

Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them this question: "What do you think of the Messiah? Whose son is he?" They said to him, "The son of David." He said to them, "How is it then that David by the Spirit calls him Lord, saying, 'The Lord said to my Lord, "Sit at my right hand, until I put your enemies under your feet"'? If David thus calls him Lord, how can he be his son?" No one was able to give him an answer, nor from that day did anyone dare to ask him any more questions.

Prayer of Invocation (Ps 90:1-6)

Lord, you have been our dwelling place throughout all generations.

In you, we come home...

To rest, to wrestle, to love, to be loved.

We dwell in you.

Before the mountains were born, before you delivered the whole world,
From everlasting past to everlasting future, you are God.

In you, we are home...

We dream, we flourish, we fade, we rejoice.

We dwell in you.

Satisfy us this morning with your steadfast love.
Let your work be manifest in us your servants
Let your favour be upon us

Together we are home...

We are glad, we are renewed, we sing our songs to you,

Together we dwell in you. AMEN
