Thanksgiving Litany for the saints, past, present and future

Leader: For all the saints who went before us who have spoken to our hearts and touched us with your fire,

ALL: we give thanks to you, O God.

Leader: For all the saints who live beside us Whose weaknesses and strengths are woven with our own,

All: we give thanks to you, O God

Leader: For all the saints who live beyond us who challenge us to change the world with them,

ALL: We give thanks to you, O God. Amen.

Old Testament Reading: Isaiah 25:1, 4a, 6-10a

O Lord, you are my God; I will exalt you, I will praise your name; for you have done wonderful things, plans formed of old, faithful and sure ... you have been a refuge to the poor, a refuge to the needy in their distress, a shelter from the rainstorm and a shade from the heat ...

On this mountain the Lord of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-aged wines, of rich food filled with marrow, of well-aged wines strained clear. And he will destroy on this mountain the shroud that is cast over all peoples, the sheet that is spread over all nations; he will swallow up death forever. Then the Lord God will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth, for the Lord has spoken.

It will be said on that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us. This is the Lord for whom we have waited; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation. For the hand of the Lord will rest on this mountain.
