Call to Worship (Psalm 34)

Bless the Lord at all times.

Let everyone bless God.

Praise the Lord continually.

Let everyone praise Christ.

Responding

Response to the Word (Mark 10)

Like Jesus leaving Jericho,
your word has passed before us today. →

Have mercy on us, Lord!

Others have told us to be quiet.

Many have tried to lure us away, yet we desire you.

Have mercy on us, Lord!

Then you spoke to us and called us by name,
filling us with your word.

Have mercy on us, Lord!

You ask us what we want, what we need.

There are so many things we hold in our heart:

home, family, health, our nation —

but you know our greatest need.

Lord, let us see as you see.

Have mercy on us, Lord! Amen.

Update from Angel and Blanca !

After four months life is starting to get a new normal here. In the beginning the kids were very unsettled, but now they are making friends, getting the rhythm of classes. We got their first report cards and their grades are excellent, even in the subjects in Spanish. Angel and I are attending and taking turns to host and teach the bible studies small groups.

We are getting involved and getting to know the people that Dallas and Tara Wiebe, the missionaries who are part of our team are working with. The idea is for us to start new small groups as we get to know new people. We are already making some new contacts, though developing trust and starting a Bible study might take a little longer. Please pray for that.

Personally, as you might know, Angel got a gallbladder surgery and he is recuperating really well.

We just came back from Hermosillo, the city where my family lives. My father is very sick and doing very poorly. I went to visit him on August and he was in a much better condition, but last month the doctors found a tumour in his brain and they are not able to do surgery or any treatment because the tumour is big and intertwined with the brain. Now he is mostly in bed, with lots of headache and get disoriented very often. He is in palliative care on morphine and other medication. Please pass this to the church for prayer, so his pain may be lessen and that he would understand salvation through Jesus, I know he does but I pray that his faith is real and that he can have peace in his heart.

Love,
Angel, Blanca Sarai Belen Chris y Carlos
