Prayer night tonight, at Ron and Ruth's home

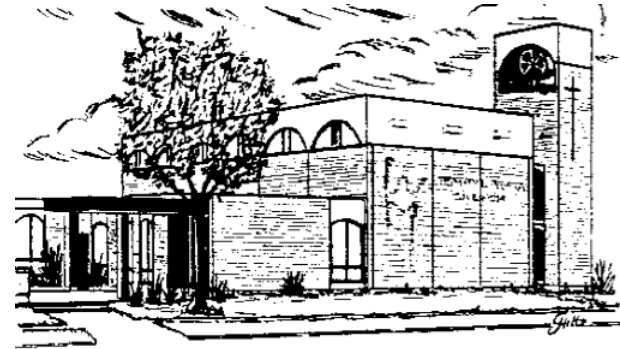

Next week, January 20th is the Church retreat at Camp Assiniboia. Today is the last day to sign up! During the retreat worship time, we will be participating as a group in the Kairos Blanket Exercise, an interactive group experience designed to build understanding about our shared history as Indigenous and non-Indigenous peoples in Canada by walking through pre-contact, treaty-making, colonization and resistance. Everyone is actively involved to the extent they are able, but don't need to prepare anything. The time will include sharing by Elder Karen Jolly (who is on staff at Inner City Youth Alive) and will give folks a chance to reflect on the experience.

We welcome each one of you to this gathering, where we all have the same nationality as children and heirs in the kingdom of God. We are grateful for God's love and mercy to all, no matter where we come from. Everyone is welcome to this place, and to feel at home.

Text: Luke 4:18-21 (NRSV)

Leader: The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor;

All: Forgive us, Lord, for the times our actions have not been consistent with the message of Good News to the most vulnerable.

Leader: He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives,

All: Forgive us, Lord, for the times we have not looked after the needy, the marginalized and the exiled due to our lack of love and lack of commitment to your Word.

Leader: and recovery of sight to the blind,

All: Forgive us, Lord, for the times our works have not been motivated by your love.

Leader: to let the oppressed go free,

All: Forgive us, Lord, for the times we have not stood on the side of your justice and truth on behalf of the exiled and the outcasts.

Leader: to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor.

All: Help us, Lord, to put your Word into action, taking the Good News to all who suffer in a foreign land.

Leader: And he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him.

All: Lord, we commit to ensuring that the preaching of your Word becomes a reality in our daily life, through the witness of our actions on behalf of those who suffer displacement due to violence and social injustice.

Leader: Then he began to say to them, "Today

this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing."

All: Lord, we commit to taking the Good News to all who suffer the pain and loss of displacement. Hallelujah, yours is the Glory and Honor forever and ever! Amen.

Benediction

May the source of our inspiration be Christ Jesus, who in his love of the poorest and most needy demonstrated welcome and inclusion. May everything we do be done as if we are doing it to Jesus, and because we are one in Jesus. Amen

For our City

As the Meth Crisis continues to worsen throughout our city and our leaders and law enforcement seek to find solutions and ways of helping those in need, let's continue to pray. Pray for healing for those who struggle with addiction, pray for hope and encouragement for those who work with them, and pray for lasting and practical solutions to help people find healing from addictions and trauma.
